WHO ARE THE LANDER PIONEER DAYS ROYALTY?

Each one is...

1. A young lady who takes great pride in who she is and wants to keep the traditions of horsemanship and good character strong in her life and her community.
2. A young lady who loves horses and everything they represent and who wants to show the rest of the world what can be accomplished while surrounded by this environment.
3. A young lady who desires to act as an official representative of rodeo and her community, portraying good sportsmanship and high moral and ethical character, and genuine appreciation of the people around her and reflecting careful and humane treatment of animals. She should understand the sport of rodeo enough to be able to explain and "sell" rodeo to anyone with whom she may come in contact.
4. A young lady should be able to speak intelligently, with dignity and sincere interest in rodeo and her community. She should realize the Pioneer Days Rodeo Royalty Contest is not a beauty pageant; however, she should act, speak and dress according to the prestige the title deserves.
5. An ambitious lady who is interested in furthering her chosen career by gaining job experience, confidence in herself and her abilities, and being part of a long-time tradition within her community.

Contestant Requirements:

1. All Pioneer Days Queen contestants MUST be between the ages of 18 – 23, as of 1/1/25.
All Pioneer Days Jr. Queen contestants MUST be between the ages of 13 – 17, as of 1/1/25.
All Pioneer Days Princess contestants MUST be between the ages of 7 – 12, as of 1/1/25.
2. All Lander Pioneer Days contestants MUST be a resident of Fremont County, Wyoming.
3. All Lander Pioneer Days contestants certify that she has never been married, pregnant or given birth to a child. Contestant has never been charged, convicted and/or determined to have committed any crime of moral turpitude, criminal offense nor has she had a title removed for any reason.
4. Lander Pioneer Days contestants may not hold another rodeo queen title to run concurrent with that of the Lander Pioneer Days title, with the exception of Fremont County Fair & Rodeo Queen Court or Miss Rodeo Wyoming.

Contest Information:

Contest is Thursday, May 1, 2025 at 6:00 pm at the LOTRA Indoor Arena in Lander, WY.

All Lander Pioneer Days contestants must be in complete western attire: shirt, jeans, cowboy hat, belt and boots throughout the entire royalty contest. Chaps are not allowed.

Contestants with the highest overall score will be crowned at the conclusion of the contest as the 2025 Lander Pioneer Days Queen, Jr. Queen and Princess. Prizes and gifts will be given to the contestants at that time.

The point system is as follows: 50% Horsemanship, 30% Interviews, and 20% Appearance. In the case of a tie, the Horsemanship scores will determine the winner.

- Horsemanship: Set Reining Pattern included in this packet, presentation run, and flag run. Contestant will be judged on execution of pattern, how well horse and rider respond to one another, and how contestant conducts herself while in the saddle.
- Interview: Q&A with the judges. Questions will be based off those provided in this packet also the information from your fact sheet, about your horse, Lander Pioneer Days celebration, and why you want to be the next Lander Pioneer Days Queen, Jr. Queen or Princess.
- Appearance: How you present yourself: physically- clean, age-appropriate attire; and emotionally- personality and ability to connect with others from the saddle and in person. How you present your horse: clean, healthy, and condition for age maintained.

All judges' decisions are final and will not be changed under any circumstances. The contestant with the highest combined score shall be determined the winner of the Queen, Jr. Queen & Princess contest.
